Son of Dr. Wilhoit Has Close Call In Landing Plane

RICHARD WILHOIT WAS MISSING IN FOG FOR ABOUT TWENTY HOURS

Lost in the fog and missing for nearly 20 hours, Richard Wilhoit, young son of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Wilhoit of Ocean Beach almost miraculously landed his Piper Cub 2-seater plane in a cow pasture near the coast about halfway between Ocean Beach and Los Angeles, escaping without injury to both himself and his plane. He then headed home landing at the Peak airport near Mission Bay about 1 p. m. Saturday.

Both the Navy Air-Sea rescue and the Coast Guard aided in the search for Young Wilhoit, starting at 10 a. m. Saturday, but were unable to find trace of him or his plane. His father relating the story to The News Wednesday gave the details about as follows:

"We had seen Dick off at the Peak airport at 2 p. m. Friday, where he took off in his own plane for Long Beach for a visit with his brother, John W. Wilhoit Jr., who is attending U. S. C. The sky was fairly clear and the prospects good for visibility for the hop to Long Beach. Dick told us afterwards, however, that the fog began rolling in so he landed at Oceanside. He was advised there was sufficient visibility to make it to Long Beach, so Dick took-off again. Before reaching Long Beach, however, the fog rolled in thicker than ever and after a fruitless circling of the (Continued on Page Eight)

Col. Rolin W. Shaw, Chamber of Commerce secretary, reports that the office of the First National Real Estate and Management Co., with which he is connected, has been moved from El Cajon Blvd. to Pacific Beach, a considerably more convenient arrangement for the local man. The company, which has headquarters in Los Angeles, was organized a little more than three years ago, he says, and now has 19 branch offices including the one opened Monday this week at Pacific Beach.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS FEATURE MARC'S WINDOW

(By Ruth Griffin)

Marc Strauss has joined right in with the spirit of things here at the beach, with a new and clever idea for a Christmas decoration in the window of his store. The display is the work of Johnny Dowell of Chula Vista and is in keeping with the Dickens ball wall which was done by "Chatter" Carothers of 2672 Narcissus Ave. Miss Carothers is a graduate of Point Loma high school where she had art experience as art editor of the school annual and is at present in her second term at San Diego State college as an art major. The back walls are sketched on poster paper with pastels.

Pt. Loma Football Champions Will Be Honored on Dec. 10

Point Loma high school's champion football team will be honored next Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, at Wallace Hall, when they will be guests of the Ocean Beach Kiwanis club. The dinner, in which they will join with the Kiwanians, is set for 6:30 o'clock.

Coach Don Giddings, the team managers and every letterman on the squad is being invited to be guests of the club, about 25 in all. A program of special interest to the guests is being arranged.

The Pointers recently closed one of the most successful seasons in Point Loma history. They played through the season without a defeat, had only one tie game and won their six conference games, giving them the 1946 championship of San Diego's Metropolitan league. Of the total squad 23 earned their football letters, all 23 being invited to the Kiwanis dinner. They were awarded their letters Tuesday. The 23 are as follows:

New Church Will Hold Organization Day Service Dec. 8

The recently established United Lutheran church in Ocean Beach will hold Organization Day services the coming Sunday, December 8, with the idea of closing the charter membership, and then incorporating, Rev. Earl J. Johnson, the pastor, announced this week. "We have more than 50 adult members already on the roll," he says, "and in order to incorporate the requirement is that we close the charter membership list."

At these special services, to be held at the Thursday clubhouse, Dr. J. P. Beasom of Glendale, Calif., will preach both morning and evening, the forenoon service being at 10:45 a. m. and the evening at 7:30. The senior and junior choirs will sing at both services, and at the evening service, Dr. E. A. Vosseler, pastor of the First Lutheran church of San Diego, will assist Dr. Beasom.

The recently chosen church council for the new church, consisting of Carl Nelson, John A. Titlow, J. T. Joessler, Glenn Stelling, Ray Schroeder and George Speer, all of Ocean Beach, will be installed at the Sunday meeting.

At noon Sunday following the forenoon service the women of the church will serve a fellowship dinner at the Thursday clubhouse, 1224 Santa Barbara St., where the church is holding meetings temporarily. Two lots on Sunset Cliffs Blvd., at Adair St., overlooking the ocean have been purchased, and the plan is to build soon as material and workmen are available.

PTA Issues Special Request for Used Children's Clothing

(By Mrs. Ralph Follick)

"A Mexican Christmas" will be the special feature planned for the P. T. A. meeting at the Ocean Beach Elementary school Tuesday, December 10, at 1:30 p. m., detailed mention of which is found in another column in this paper. The pupils of Miss Lipp's fourth grade room will present the program of how our neighbor to the south celebrates the Christmas season. Also offered as holiday season attraction will be songs sung by Mrs. Helen Merit. Nursery service will be available. A special request for used clothing that is clean, mended and ready to put on a child right away has come from the Welfare department of the P. T. A. Frequent calls are made for clothing to help keep a child in school while a family is arranging for help from the city welfare department. Bring any clothes that you have that are in good condition to the next P. T. A. meeting Tuesday, December 10.

The P. T. A. wishes to remind all Ocean Beach parents to save all waste paper for the next paper drive which will be January 8. All proceeds from the drive will go to the fund for the Children's Orthopedic hospital.

Approval of Arts School Under G. I. Rights Act Urged

Replying to what he indicates are far-fetched and absurd reasons for withholding approval of the Arts school in Ocean Beach under the G. I. Bill of Rights, Director Orren Loudon of the school submits the following for publication in The Ocean Beach News this week:

November 29, 1946.
Mr. Frank Swan, Editor,
The Ocean Beach News,
San Diego 7, California.

Dear Mr. Swan:
I wish to take this opportunity of not only expressing my gratitude for your lively interest and cooperation in the San Diego School of Arts and Crafts and for the excellent printing you have done for us but also to bring to your attention the subject of the State Board of Education's withholding of approval of the School for G. I. Training.

Shortly after the school moved to the present location, approval was requested and the necessary forms were submitted. Along with the forms went references and recommendations from professional artists, educators and civic organizations which recognized (Continued on Page Two)

Mystery In Death Of Mrs. McCusker Solved By Chemist

EVIDENCE INDICATES ARSENIC POISON WAS USED TO CAUSE DEATH

The mystery of the violent death of an Ocean Beach housewife, Mrs. Charlotte McCusker, was solved Saturday night when chemists confirmed that her death was self-inflicted. An analysis indicated that she had taken ant poison dissolved in a glass of water. The authorities report that the arsenic poison, combined with multiple wrist and head lacerations resulted in death. Largely because of the temporary mystery the case attracted wide publication in the daily press.

Mrs. McCusker's body was discovered Friday evening in the kitchen of her home at 4546 Tivoli St. by her husband, Ian D. McCusker, an engineering surveyor for a National City firm. He summoned Patrolmen C. T. Mann and J. F. Goldman of the Ocean Beach station. The patrolmen called the police homicide detail because preliminary investigation indicated possible murder.

Mrs. McCusker was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Brown of Loma Portal, her father being a prominent San Diego automobile dealer. Besides her parents and her husband, Mrs. McCusker is survived by her two-year-old daughter, Julia Ann, and a brother, Fred W. Brown Jr. of San Diego.

A graduate of San Diego high school, Mrs. McCusker also attended the University School for Girls in Chicago. She was born in Chicago and came to San Diego in 1935.

Mr. McCusker is a veteran of World War II, having served as an army officer in Europe.

Funeral services were held Thursday in Bonham Brothers mortuary.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bennett of Santa Ana have leased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Grant at 1865 Ebers St. Mr. and Mrs. Grant have moved to Pasadena, where they plan to live temporarily.

CAPT. HAMAS RECOVERS NAVAL ACADEMY RING FROM JAPS FOR COL. G. POTTER

Capt. John Hamas, U. S. M. C., of 1575 Ocean Front Blvd. figured in ceremonies at Camp Pendleton recently when he returned a Naval Academy class ring to Col. George H. Potter Jr., executive officer at the camp. This ring had been taken from Col. Potter by Japanese guards when both men were being transported with other Marine prisoners from Wake island to Japan early in the war.

When Capt. Hamas was in Tokyo recently to testify in the war crimes trials he had occasion to look up certain of the Jap guards who had mistreated American prisoners of war. While searching the home of one of the former guards the captain found the class ring of Col. Potter concealed in the sleeve of a kimono belonging to the guard's wife.

Both Capt. Hamas and Col. Potter spent three and a half years in prison camps, although they were in different camps.

Newport Ave. Street Decorations Installed

OCEAN BEACH BUSINESS DISTRICT TAKES ON HOLIDAY APPEARANCE; MOST LOCAL STORES WILL BE OPEN EVENINGS, BEGINNING SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14

Preparations by the Ocean Beach community for Christmas were nearing completion this week. All metal street decorations were attached to 31 light posts along Newport Ave. during the night Tuesday. Arnold Morss, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of the decorations, reported Thursday that further adornment of the light poles with the cooperation of merchants is planned. Decorations now on the poles were provided and installed by the Winsett Decoration Co. of San Diego.

Purchase of a 25-foot Christmas tree to be erected at the corner of Newport and Cable on the Safeway parking lot also was announced by Morss. Plans now are for the tree to be in place and decorated by Wednesday, Dec. 11. Clyde Wright post of the American Legion has charge of the decoration of the tree which was provided by Chamber of Commerce funds. Wm. Brittan, commander, and Henry Voss of the Legion post are in charge of the decorating committee.

Majority of the Ocean Beach merchants were completing decoration of their places of business for Christmas by today (Friday). Many fine displays showing much originality are to be seen in the store windows along the principal business streets.

Added convenience for Christmas shoppers is being provided by many of the local merchants who plan to remain open for business until 9 p. m. each day until Christmas eve beginning Saturday, December 14. A list of 25 providing this service for local residents will be found in the large advertisement on page 3 of this issue of The News.

Kiwanis Key Club For Pt. Loma High School Boys Urged

OBJECT IS TO TRAIN BOYS TO BE LEADERS IN COMMUNITY SERVICE

Organization of a Kiwanis International "Key" club for the boys of Point Loma high school was urged in a talk given by W. Forest Whedon of Ocean Beach before the local Kiwanis club Tuesday evening at Wallace Hall. Whedon had been instrumental in launching a similar club for the La Jolla Kiwanis club last year; the first club of its kind in the 11th Kiwanis district.

Object of the club is to train high school boys to become leaders in good citizenship, particularly in community service. In effect, such clubs, of which there are now 145 in the United States, are junior Kiwanis clubs and function along lines similar to those of the regular Kiwanis clubs of this country.

If organized here the Point Loma high school boys to be honored by membership in the club would meet regularly, likely once a week, Whedon said. Representatives of the Kiwanis club would attend their meetings to provide guidance and advice and representatives of the "key" club would attend the weekly Kiwanis meetings.

Both Lloyd Adams of Brawley, the district lieutenant governor, and Milton Lancaster of the local Kiwanis Youth committee spoke emphatically in favor of the organization of such "Key" club for the local high school. Said Adams: "This is one of the most important activities Kiwanis International has ever sponsored."

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn O. Poplin of 2077 Cable St. announce the birth of a baby daughter on November 15 at Scripps Memorial hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds and 3 ounces at birth and was named Carol Glennys.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Davis of 4955 Del Monte Ave. entertained at Thanksgiving day dinner for Mrs. E. G. Davis of Flora, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snyder and son John and Mrs. Hattie Snyder, all of Pacific Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell and son John of Ocean Beach. Mrs. E. G. Davis arrived here recently, after visiting with relatives in Hollywood and will return there soon. The Thanksgiving dinner party also was in honor of the recent fifth birthday of John Snyder, who is a grandson of the R. E. Davises.

SILVER-TIP CHRISTMAS TREE IN STORE ATTRACTIONS

(By Ruth Griffin)

Veda Moss has done her bit towards beautifying our community for the Christmas season by going up to Palomar mountain with Al Hunt and "Johnny" Johnston for a 25-foot Christmas tree which now stands conspicuously in all its glory in her shop. It was cut out of a 150-foot Silver-tip tree and decorated by Al Hunt. Al also is responsible for the yule window display made up of huge candles and packages wrapped in silver and gold, with sprigs of evergreen emerging from the back wall.

Salute of the Week:
To the newly elected directors of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Award of Badges Highlights Friday Cub Pack Meeting

Other officials in attendance were Pack Chairman Milt Lancaster, District Commissioner R. S. Belt, Neighsborough Commissioner Czaplinski and R. Sherwood, treasurer of the pack. Many parents of the scouts also attended.

Songs, yells and skits were presented by the various dens. The point system award, passes to the Saturday show at the Strand, was given to Den 6.

New members of the pack are Jack Fabre, Jimmy Goebel, Michael Tuite, Jeremy Lustig and Richard Tenney. Those awarded the wolf badge were Albert Page, Bobby Sims and Gene Muchmore. Frank Pearce and Gale Brady received wolf badges with the golden arrow and Ronald Grobecker the silver arrow.

The Dec. 20 meeting will be a Christmas party, complete with a cub Santa Claus and a Christmas movie. Pack officers urge all parents of pack members to attend.

Mrs. E. Croston, a resident of Long Branch Ave. in Ocean Beach since 1925 when she moved here from Canada, recently moved to Monterey Park, Calif., where she plans to make her home.

Recreation Center Meeting to Be Held On Tuesday Night

Representatives of every interested organization and institution in Ocean Beach are invited to be present. The News is informed. Last meeting was held Nov. 19, as reported in The News of Nov. 22, and the intervening time is intended to be used by every organization, club and institution in making selection of the representative of each who is to attend the Dec. 10 meeting.

Main business to be transacted is the selection of the general advisory committee consisting of a representative from each of these various groups, and that committee to then select a small executive committee of likely three or five members. The "Y-Teens" of Dana Junior High are earning money to build up the war torn Y. W. C. A.'s in foreign countries. The members are earning the money by dressing dolls, which will be displayed and auctioned off at the P. T. ## Newly Organized Local Drama Group To Present Comedy

A newly organized drama group of the Ocean Beach Junior Woman's club, under the leadership of Mary Oberg, is now working on a one-act comedy to be presented Monday, December 16, 1946, at 8 p. m. at the Woman's clubhouse.

The play entitled "Sugar and Spice" written by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements, is being used by special arrangement with Samuel French.

Those assisting Mrs. Oberg in preparing this play are Evelyn Stradley in charge of script and Emmy Lou Blake who will do the hair styling and makeup. The cast will include the following:

Robert Brazell as "Chump Edwards," an unruly lad of today; Patricia De Paw, as "Jane Jones," a spoiled adolescent; Evelyn Stradley, as "Susan Harling," a very affected young girl who has had a few months education at an exclusive school in France; Marion Gentles as "Mrs. Jones," the mother, who is a very competent and humorous woman; Phil Sjoberg as "Mr. Jones," the father, who is a large amiable man in his late thirties.

Bay Improvement Expected to Add More Beach Here

DREDGING OF CHANNEL TO PROVIDE THE SAND, ENGINEERS ESTIMATE

The south jetty and the dredging of the San Diego river channel outlet to the ocean will provide about 30 acres additional beach for Ocean Beach, according to estimate of the Army engineers, Councilman G. C. Gray told the local Chamber of Commerce at the December meeting held Monday evening at the Woman's clubhouse. In fact, he said he was reliably informed that a somewhat similar additional area of beach also will be added to Mission Beach on the north side of the north jetty of the channel. The dredging needed to deepen the channel entrance to Mission bay will provide the additional sand that will mean these large areas of additional beach, he said.

Ocean Beach, accordingly, is most fortunate, and will benefit considerably from the new Mission Bay recreational development, the speaker indicated. After stating that the Mission Bay project was in the dream stage up until 27 months ago, Gray said that today this huge improvement is practically assured. A lot of hard work and planning has gone into the project thus far, he said.

The speaker also was optimistic about getting the mean high tide line along the local shore established in the near future. "The city attorney," he said, "has informed me that we can expect this matter to be decided in about 90 days." The city has felt that until such line is fixed, real beach improvement here must wait, he intimated.

He urged the local Chamber of Commerce to push its campaign for beach improvement. "The Ocean Beach of tomorrow will be what the people here plan and work for," he added.

Milton Lancaster, program chairman, introduced the councilman, and after the latter's talk urged the 140 members of the local Chamber of Commerce to get together and work for Ocean Beach.

Five Directors Elected

Main item of business was the election of five directors for the ensuing two-year term. All those nominated by the committee were unanimously elected as follows:

Homer Gravelle, Mrs. Ruth Anderson, Purcell Webb, Gene Henderson and R. E. Miller.

These five and the holdover six will meet Dec. 17 to organize (Continued on Page 4)

Work of Organized Reserve Outlined At Lions Meeting

Naval Air Reserve units here in San Diego at the present time provide a monthly pay roll, spent in this city, of $600,000, reports Lt. Cmdr. R. L. Bartlett of the reserve. In a talk to the Ocean Beach Lions club at the meeting held Thursday noon, the commander outlined the work of the organized reserve and pointed out that if the full complement assigned for reserve training to this area could be attained the present pay roll would be doubled. Purpose of the air reserve, according to Bartlett, is to keep former aviation personnel abreast of current development in aircraft and to maintain their efficiency in their work. At present a movement is afoot to get the San Diego unit of the air reserve transferred to Arizona because of the difficulty of bringing the complement of the unit up to its full quota. In an effort to prevent this transfer, members of the reserve here are taking every opportunity to acquaint veterans of World War II with the work of the reserve and the responsibilities and qualifications of membership. Principal duties of those on reserve status include attendance at four short drill periods per month for which pay equivalent to one thirtieth of base pay is given. Cmdr. Bartlett also pointed out that members of the reserve are on inactive status and are not subject to transfer except on application of the individual.

Guests present at the meeting besides the speaker were ACMG D. Dalton, a guest of Milt Plummer, and Sheldon Moore, guest of H. B. Hollibaugh.

Roy Plummer was program chairman.

Approval of Arts

the high standards and aims of the school. They also realized the dire need of providing hundreds of San Diego veterans with the type of education they desired and fought for and were promised them under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

The approval is being withheld after two inspectors from the Board of Education came down from Los Angeles, solely on "the plant, equipment and instructional materials must be equivalent to those found in public schools offering the same courses" and "if the Board of Building Inspectors of San Diego establishes the fact that the school meets the standards of the city so far as physical facilities are concerned, this division will reconsider previous action."

I will answer both of these objections. First—there is no public school in the state of California (nor any other state) offering the courses similar to the ones offered here or in any other professional Art School. Second—according to the regulations of the city of San Diego, a public school cannot be located in a three-story frame building.

The inspectors from the State
Board of Education came down and were impressed with the faculty, courses, our recommendations and references but objected to trivial uneducational things, such as the unsightly entrance caused by the old plunge (which is to be torn down), the lack of varnish and paint in the entry.
Neither inspector seemed to be familiar with the physical requirements of an art school, no more than I would be with a school in higher mathematics. In fact the second inspector admitted that he had never visited an art school for approval before. He was a highly competent gentleman who had formerly been the principal of a high school but was no man to pass on an art school. In fact he was much more impressed with a broken glass in a rear door of the hotel which had nothing whatever to do with the school.
He also objected to a neatly stacked pile of lumber adjacent to the hotel.

In the meantime there are hundreds of veterans coming and calling in daily but we have to turn them away because of the slowness and lack of understanding on the part of the Division of Rehabilitation, State Board of Education.

California is about the only state in the union where veterans cannot get the desired art education because of the seemingly bureaucratic, pedagogical and "Hollywood front" regulations as set down by the mentioned Division of the State Board of Education.

As it now stands, unless something is done very soon to remedy this matter, the San Diego School of Arts and Crafts will have to move from Ocean Beach and all of your very fine aid in working to make our community the Art Center of the West coast will be for naught.

Very truly yours,
ORREN R. LOUDEN,
Director.

This week we are going to get away from the record department and review a musical comedy which I had the pleasure to see while on a recent trip to New York.

Of the large number of plays I'd say that "Call Me Mister" is the best on Broadway.

The entire cast is made up of ex-G. I.'s. The stars of the play are Betty Garrett and former funnyman of George Olsen's Ork, Jules Munshin. The play is based on the homecoming of a G. I. whose parents think he has battle fatigue and has been starved not only by the lack of nutrition but also for lack of female companionship.

Dance routines were staged by John Wray and were brilliantly performed by Bill Callahan and Betty Garrett. The musical's choreography is done by Miss Garrett, Mr. Munshin and Lawrence Winters, star of "Porgy and Bess" and twice soloist with the NBC Symphony orchestra. The most widely known hit to come out of "Call Me Mister" is "South America Take It Away," but by far the most impressive song of the show is "Face on a Dime" which is a tribute to F. D. R. and is sung by Mr. Winters. Harold Rome is the composer of the music and the lyrics of the show. As in "Call Me Mister" he has displayed his talents in such hits as "Streets of Paris" and "Star and Garter."

"Call Me Mister" is a captivating show full of ginger and high spirits. It's a "don't miss it" on Broadway.

Now to get back to the heavier side of the musical world. While browsing around a record store I came upon a new album just released by Victor. It is a combination set by the Philadelphia orchestra with Ormandy conducting and the National Symphony orchestra with Hans Kindler handling the baton on Georges En-esco's Roumanian Rhapsodies Nos. 1 and 2. The Philadelphia Ork does No. 2 and the National plays No. 1. As usual both orchestras turn out a superb recording. It is MUST for those who like Enesco and for those of you who like the best in classics.

"Blithe Spirit" To Be Presented At Point Loma High

By Claire Hollobaugh

Have you been seeing spirits lately? Then, undoubtedly you've been the hapless victim of one of Elvira's hauntings. Elvira, along with many other worthy "characters" is coming to Ocean Beach this Friday and Saturday evenings when the Pacific Beach Little Theatre will present Noel Coward's popular comedy, "Blithe Spirit" at Point Loma high school.

Of particular interest to our community is the fact that we have two important players from our own Ocean Beach. Dolores Joca of Venice St. plays the all important role of Madame Arcati and Joan Holly of 739 Sunset Cliffs Blvd. has the title role of the not-always-so-blithe "spirit."

Others in the cast include, Eva Penn as "Edith," the maid, Nancy Norton as "Ruth," the present wife of "Charles," Mike Borum as "Charles," Jack Cremans as "Doctor Bradman" and Pat Hederman as "Mrs. Bradman."

This play is under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Crom. Ralph Hastings, well known in dramatic circles and acting executive chairman of the Little Theatre league, has been the consulting director. Curtain time is 8:15 p. m.

John (Dad) Clark left Sunday for a 10-day visit in Los Angeles with his son, Charles R. Clark

BRIEF

Mrs. Helen Shaw of 2068 Sunset Cliffs had her son, Clifford Shaw of Barstow, Calif., as a house guest on Monday and Tuesday, November 25 and 26.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. LaTour of 4407 Green St. spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hunt in Whittier, Calif. They report that they encountered fog en route home so thick that they couldn't see the white center-line on the road.

Clyde Raver of Jefferson, Iowa, arrived in Ocean Beach on Monday, Nov. 25, to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin C. Thornley at 4612 Bermuda Ave. Raver stayed with the Thornleys a week and then drove to Los Angeles to visit other friends before returning to Iowa.

This year alone, we have added
129,000 telephones

They're going in as fast as we are able to install them . . . the telephones needed on the Pacific Coast. In 1946 alone, we have already added more than 129,000 and thousands more go into service every month. But there is still a big job ahead.

Complicated switchboards, cables, dial equipment and even new buildings have to be built before everyone who wants a telephone can get one. This will take time because our progress is handicapped by shortages of materials and by the disturbed conditions throughout the country affecting manufacturers' output and our construction projects. Meanwhile you may be certain that we will do everything we can.

For it is our purpose in our huge expansion program to provide service for everyone who wants it just as rapidly as possible . . . better service than ever before . . . a more valuable service to every user. We are spending this year for gross plant additions an aggregate of $34,000,000 which exceeds by $24,000,000, or 80 per cent, our previous highest yearly plant expenditures in 1941 of $30,000,000.

An ever-improving telephone service at the least cost consistent with good wages and working conditions for our employees and a reasonable return to the thousands of people who have invested in the business.

Both portraits were done by Miss Rittenhouse when she was studying under the famous artists, Nicolai Fechin and Wayman Adams, in New York City. Mr. Adams, noted for his portraits, was especially impressed by "Ancient Wisdom," which depicts an old Chinaman.

Ruth Atchley and Robert T. Sweeney United in Marriage

Mrs. Ebb Amos Walker, owner and director of the Warren-Walker school, announces the marriage of her daughter, Ruth Atchley, to Robert Terence Sweeney, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sweeney of Montreal, Canada, and New York City.

The young couple recited their vows Thanksgiving Eve in Brawley at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clifford Allen. The impressive candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. Burl N. Long of Brawley. White and burgundy chrysanthemums banked the fireplace and mantel forming a picturesque altar. Mr. Allen served Mrs. Sweeney as best man.

Mrs. Sweeney selected a street length turquoise gown which was accented by a white sequin cap and orchid corsage. Mrs. Allen, her only attendant, wore figure taffeta and talisman roses. A reception followed in the Allen home for members of the family and guests who witnessed the double ring ceremony. At that time the bride's mother received in a gown of sheer black. Her flowers were red roses centered with gardenias.

Following the reception the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Mexico. The bride is a graduate of San Diego State college and took post-graduate work at U. S. C. The groom attended Columbia university and the New York Maritime Academy, graduating from the latter as a lieutenant in the navy. He served in that capacity during the war.

The Sweeneys will be at home at 4435 Osprey St.

Pat Ruud of 4752 Santa Monica Ave. entertained her cousin Ruth Eggers of Long Beach, Calif., at her home over the past week-end.

Gift Exchange to Feature Meeting of Local Woman's Club

A Christmas luncheon and gift exchange will feature the next session of the Ocean Beach Woman's club to be held on Thursday, Dec. 12 at 12 o'clock at the clubhouse. Mrs. B. H. Nielsen will be the chairman and the committee will be: Meses. Gene Arthur, P. W. Farrar, R. Fred Gentles, S. M. Kyde, D. S. Marshall, Bruce Smith, O. I. Sprungman, Lawrence Tokar and D. R. Wallace. Mrs. C. O. Woodland is in charge of the decorations. The women have been asked to limit their gifts to 50 cents at this exchange.

Also at this time the members have been requested each to bring a gift wrapped in white to carry out the white-gift idea, for the fellow woman's club members in the Philippines whose clubhouse was completely demolished during the Japanese occupation of Manila and who are sorely in need of sewing materials, such as needles, thimbles, thread and fabric on which to sew. Mrs. Lloyd N. Davis, president of the Ocean Beach Woman's club, reports that there are 800 women's clubs in the Philippines with a membership of 1,000,000 and that they did a very good job during the war, in fact, the president of the Manila Woman's club and her husband were murdered for their activities in smuggling food to the prisoners of the Japanese. As an aid toward rebuilding the Manila clubhouse the members are asked to donate 50 cents at this Christmas luncheon also.

A musical program will be presented by students of the Ocean Beach Elementary school, comprising the singing of Christmas carols.

Says Mrs. Davis, "Come prepared to have a good time and please make your reservations with Mrs. C. H. Wooley, B-6654, by December 10."

FIVE YEARS AFTER PEARL HARBOR

By tomorrow (Saturday) five years have passed since that Sunday morning in December 1941 when Pearl Harbor was suddenly changed from a scene of sabbath stillness to one of flame and fury and chaos.

The wreckage of the great battlewagons was still smoldering when the shout arose, "Remember Pearl Harbor!" That became the rallying cry around which our war effort centered. We remembered Pearl Harbor. We remembered the thousands who were killed and wounded in that attack. We remembered the vicious trickery of the enemy. We remembered how close we had come to complete disaster.

These things we kept before us until nearly four years later when what the Japs had started at Pearl Harbor we finished in Tokyo Bay.

Now the war seems long past, and Pearl Harbor a tragic event of ages ago. But we have not forgotten it. And we must not forget it—not just the attack itself but all the things that made the attack possible. We must not forget, for instance, that it was our foolish policy of supplying the Japs with great quantities of oil and scrap iron that enabled them to launch the war against us; that it was our feeling of smug security which prevented us from being alert and ready for any sudden thrust from a possible enemy.

Keeping these things in mind we shall never again build up the military power of an aggressor nation, nor shall we grow careless about our own defense. But we must not stop there. Rather, we must go on from there to help achieve that understanding and cooperation among nations which alone can bring us—and the world—sure protection and lasting peace.

The attack from the skies on December morning half a decade ago was one of the most stunning blows our Nation ever sustained. But out of it came big lessons—lessons which will always help us so long as we remember Pearl Harbor.

THE POSTMAN IS HUMAN, TOO

Most Ocean Beach News readers may respond to the title of this editorial with, "I know it, so what?"

But every year along about this time most readers and most everybody else seem to forget it. They see the signs and placards posted everywhere urging them to shop early and mail early. Do they? They don't.

The result is that during the last week or the last few days before Christmas a mountain of mail and packages deluges the Ocean Beach postoffice.

The Christmas season would be hard enough on the Ocean Beach postoffice force even if everybody cooperated by mailing early, but the last minute rush makes it all the worse. Why not help this year by actually mailing early?

Remember, the postman is only human, too.

I think it rather fine, this necessity for the tense bracing of the will before anything worth doing can be done. I rather like it myself. I feel it is to be the chief thing that differentiates me from the cat by the fire.—Arnold Bennett.

SEA BREEZES

Let's Laff
Maybe Think

The kindly old lady in our neighborhood began to notice a rather seedy looking individual on a certain corner from day to day, as she made her rounds of visiting the neighbors and doing good deeds. She felt that he needed help but probably was too proud to ask for it.

One morning, she impulsively put a dollar in his hand and whispered to him, "Never despair."

Next morning, he was on the same corner and when she approached, he handed her nine dollars.

"What does this mean?" she asked.

"It means, lady, that 'Never Despair' won at odds of 8 to 1."

Customer: "Don't you have any shorter skirts?"

Clerk: "Why don't you try the collar department?"

"I understand your husband flirts with the new cashier dreadfully."

"Does he really? He used to be rather good at it."

A woman, generally speaking, is generally speaking.

A native of the Florida east coast ordered a barometer from New York.

When it came he unpacked it and found it was set at "Hurricane." He shook it and tapped it. But, it didn't budge. He hung it up and tapped it again but it stayed at "Hurricane."

Disgusted, he wrote a hot letter to the company and went to the post office to mail it. When he came back home the barometer was not there.

Neither was his house.

"Do you believe in clubs for women?"

"Well, yes, but only when kindness fails."

An Englishman just over from the old country stopped at a hotel for the night. The bellboy decided to tell him a riddle. He said, "My mother had a baby which was neither my brother or my sister. Who was it?" The Englishman was completely baffled and could not guess the answer, so the bellboy said, "It was me."

Going back home the Englishman thought he would stump one of his fellow passengers on the boat, so he asked him the question, "My mother had a baby which was neither my brother or my sister. Who was it?" The passenger was not able to give the answer, so the Englishman said "Why it was that bloomin' bellhop back there in the United States."

A small boy came up to his school teacher and burst into tears. He told her that little Bobby had stolen his apple.

"Bobby," said the teacher severely, "you know that you have broken the Eighth Commandment by stealing Stephen's apple?"

"Well, teacher," said little Bobby, "I thought I might as well break the Eighth and have the apple as break the Tenth and covet it."

"SOUND OFF"

Question: Do you think the increase in number of divorces indicates a weakening of morals in this country?

"No! I don't think the increase in divorces shows any weakening in morals. I think rather, that it is immoral for two people to live together if they don't get along because one jeopardizes his social standing in his community as well as his family and business relations."—Ted Bates, 4865 Saratoga Ave.

"I feel that the increase in the rate of divorces is due to the independent position of women today as compared to that of women 50 years ago. Women 50 years ago were entirely dependent on their husbands for all the necessities of life. Today a woman feels that if her marriage doesn't work out she is free to try another as she can be financially independent. This results in an attitude of lightness towards marriage which in itself increases the rate of divorces."—Claire Hobbough, State College student.

"I don't think it has anything to do with morals. The women don't get enough privileges and that's why there are so many divorces. If the men raised the children it would cut down on the number of divorces."—Katherine Tiffany, Beauty Shop owner.

"I don't think it is a moral issue. I think it is a matter of education. All children, boys as well as girls, should be taught homemaking and women should be taught to expect to stay home and take care of the children. At present women have so many privileges that it only increases the number of divorces."—Mrs. James Marlow, Ocean Beach Bakery.

"No. Although ideas change as to what is moral and what is immoral, the number of divorces does not, in my opinion, have any connection with the matter of morality. The recent increase in divorces is the result of thousands of hasty marriages, made after short acquaintance, during wartime. These marriages were the result of abnormal conditions, both for the servicemen and the girls they married."—Lt. Col. Rolin W. Shaw, Secretary, Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Question for next week: If the adult education program was expanded in Ocean Beach, would you take advantage of it?

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Fickle of 4941 Coronado Ave. were hosts at a dinner party on Thanksgiving day to Mrs. Gertrude Divoort, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Graecen and daughter Jo Ann and Lee Finck. This party was in effect a double celebration as it also was Mrs. Fickle's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowell of 4989 Del Monte Ave. entertained Rex E. Bowell and Parker Bowell of Burbank over the week-end. Rex and Parker Bowell are sons of J. E. Bowell. A dinner party was held Sunday afternoon at the Bowell home in honor of Mr. Bowell's birthday. In addition to members of the family, Miss Lois Mahle and Miss Betty Jo Edwards of San Diego were guests.

J. A. Burnquist, a former governor and present attorney general of Minnesota, his wife and two friends were week-end guests at the home of Laura Pendergast of 1615 Ocean Front. Mrs. Burnquist is a cousin of Mrs. Pendergast. The entire party was entertained for Sunday morning breakfast at the home of another cousin, Eleanor Russell at La Mesa. The visitors left Sunday afternoon for Los Angeles en route home to St. Paul, Minn.

Lieut. and Mrs. Chester O. Bergath Jr. announce the arrival of a baby boy, Michael Steven, Sunday, Dec. 1, at Mercy hospital. The Bergaths are living with her parents, Lieut. and Mrs. G. F. Cole of 4766 Del Monte Ave. Lieut. Bergath, a fighter pilot in the Army Air Force, will leave soon for his new assignment at McAll Field, Tampa, Fla. He flew 70 missions with the 9th Air Force in Europe during the war. Mrs. Bergath and Michael will remain at the Cole residence for several weeks and will then fly to join her husband. Both the Bergaths are graduates of Point Loma high school.

various fields in and near Los Angeles, Dick gave up landing there and headed back for Ocean Beach. He ran out of gas, however, when about half way home and made a blind forced landing in the dark without knowing where he was. It turned out that he was in a cow pasture. He made his way to a nearby farmhouse, where he was given shelter for the night.

"Next morning, which was Saturday, the farmer helped him to obtain gas and he took off and was back at the Peak airport by 1 p. m. Saturday. He phoned us there and to say that we were relieved it was putting it with extreme mildness. I never spent such a bad night in my life as I did Friday night worrying about Dick. We had visions, of course, of both Dick and his plane having been lost in the ocean, especially since he was in the habit of driving his plane over the water rather than the nearby hills on his various trips between Ocean Beach and Los Angeles.

"We began to worry at 5 p. m. Friday, when John W. Jr. phoned from Long Beach that Dick had not arrived. We tried desperately later, but could not get word to John W. Jr. again until the next morning."

Young Dick Wilhoit is a student at Palomar Junior College at Vista.

Mrs. R. B. DeLozier of 4840 1/2 Niagara Ave. entertained 10 of her friends and neighbors Tuesday evening at her home at a Stanley hostess party at which Mrs. Helen Calvert was the demonstrator. After the demonstration games were played and prizes given and Mrs. DeLozier served cake and coffee to her guests. Those attending were: Mmes. Lloyd DeLozier, James F.
